

Attorney Celeste del Carmen Tabares

Associate

cdt@eblawyers.com

602.271.9090 MAIN
602.222.4955 DIRECT
602.222.4999 FAX

2800 North Central Avenue, Suite 1200, Phoenix, Arizona 85004

Practice

Creditors' Rights
Commercial Litigation

Education

University of San Francisco
School of Law, J.D., 2020
Northern Arizona University,
B.A. in Philosophy, Politics, and Law, minors in Ethnic Studies and Women's and Gender Studies,
2017

Admissions

Arizona State Courts
U.S. District Court for the District of Arizona

Celeste del Carmen Tabares practices in our Creditor's Rights and Litigation Practices. Celeste joined Engelman Berger after working with the Tenants Eviction Assistance Project where she provided legal assistance to tenants in the City of Phoenix facing eviction during the COVID-19 pandemic. Celeste was born and raised in Flagstaff, Arizona and is committed to using her legal skills to serve her community. Celeste is fluent in Spanish.

Focus

To accomplish client goals and objectives by providing thoughtful and innovative legal assistance and representation.

Clients

Banks and Financial Institutions, Entrepreneurs and Startups, Investors, Business Owners, Commercial Landlords, Contractors, Employers, Real Estate Developers

Industries

Banking and Finance, Business, Franchising, Healthcare, Real Estate

Professional

State Bar of Arizona
Arizona Bankruptcy Inn of Court, Associate, Present
Arizona Women Lawyers Association, Member, Present
Arizona Association of Defense Counsel, Member, Present

Recognitions

USF Moot Court Programs, Executive Director
USF Law Review, Junior Staffer
Academic Excellence Award Nominee
Best Moot Court Oralist (2018)